

WEEKLY E-LETTER

Nov. 23, 2016

Grace and Peace to you as Advent draws near.

This Sunday, we will mark the first Sunday of Advent as we celebrate Holy Communion together.

This is also the weekend of our big biennial auction (Saturday). So Wilmot is a veritable hive of activity.

Council meets tonight and will vote on the first of the Remits. This first Remit proposes to change the governance structure of the United Church of Canada. Woolastook Presbytery meets in Stanley on Thursday and they will also be voting on Remits 7 and 8.

You can find out much more about this by going to the new improved Wilmot web page and looking under the tab "Links".

While there, please take a look around. Many new items of interest are now posted for your information. Dylan Sweeney is our web master.

I hope you can change your daily routine this Advent season, to include some daily spiritual practice in order to root and ground you in the deep meaning and hope of this special season. The new church year is beginning! May you be blessed so that you can in turn, be a blessing for others.

In Advent Peace,

Rose~Hannah
