

WEEKLY E-LETTER -- Aug. 15, 2017

Grace and Peace to you this day!

We had a great service last Sunday before the Pride parade began and a good turnout of friends and newcomers. What a joy to baptize Sarah's new baby girl, Muriel, only two weeks old!

Wilmot had a good group to walk in the parade. You can see one photo on the web page under "Events". A warm thank you to all who helped to make the worship, welcome and parade a success.

We are going to be reading a book together starting in September. It is called Fishing Tips and is a story of change and renewal in one Calgary church. I have several copies for lending out. Please let me know if you'd like to borrow one for summertime reading.

Also, thinking of September, it is time to prepare for "Welcome Sunday" September 10th. So that your committee or group can have a presence at the ministry fair following worship, please be in touch with Marlene to book a table and also start your planning for what your table will display. It's a wonderful opportunity to show the range and scope of Wilmot's ministry and maybe even recruit some new participants.

Remember that the church is still open and we are working away at our ministry - on summer hours. So, if you require information or assistance let us know.

Until I see you next,

May God bless and keep you.
