

WEEKLY E-LETTER --

July 10, 2017

Grace and Peace to you this week!

I hope you are enjoying the summer wherever you might be.

The ministry of Wilmot United is going well this summer. There are still meetings of various people and working groups, such as the property development task group, but fewer than in the fall.

The painting of the Carleton Street side of the sanctuary building has begun and that parking lot is consequently closed, for safety reasons.

Last Sunday we had a guest preacher at Downtown United, Rev. Keith Gale. This coming week, Rev. Michelle Armstrong will be the preacher at St. Paul's at 10:30 a.m.

There is a new practice at the hospital that means if you are admitted through any other department other than the Admitting department, your name will not be added to the list of United Church patients. This may mean, we wouldn't know that you are in hospital and thus you would not have us visit. So, if this happens, please contact the Spiritual Care Department to have your name added to the list.

Summer is a good time for visiting, so if you would like Ellen or me to pay you a visit, please do not hesitate to be in touch.

Until we meet again, may God hold you in the palm of God's hand.

Rose~Hannah
