

WEEKLY E-LETTER

Nov. 21, 2017

Grace and peace to you all!

Snow is in the air as I write this. Of course, tomorrow might be another season altogether.

This is a busy week coming up at Wilmot. Stewardship & Finance meet this evening and Council on Wednesday. Presbytery meets all day Thursday in Woodstock. Do you remember that your four Presbytery representatives are Shirley Cleave, Richard Scott, Norm Laverty and Elizabeth Savoie?

Both Council and Presbytery will be voting on Remit 6, One Order of Ministry. It is a very complex issue so, here is the link to the background information.

<https://7f8159c42d5f64d63d1b-dec189f157202212a76b23fc4d185c40.ssl.cf2.rackcdn.com/remit-06-study-guide-one-order.pdf>

This Sunday is the final Sunday in the liturgical year. It is traditionally called The Reign of Christ Sunday. It tells a part of the Christian story that we don't talk much about. I do hope you can come Sunday and enter into the reflection as we ponder God's word for us together.

Please have a look at our web page; we have a new look. Dylan Sweeney continues to do a fine job as our webmaster.

It is not too soon to mark Advent events in your calendar; here are some to include:

Monday, Dec. 4: Christmas Gifts That Won't Break workshop led by Marlene Phillips. 10 a.m.-2 p.m. Everyone bring their own lunch, please. It would be helpful if you advised Marlene if you wish to attend, so she will have enough supplies on hand.

Wednesday, Dec. 13: Come and Find the Quiet Centre - Wilmot sanctuary

Saturday, Dec. 16: "Praying the News This Advent" small group retreat.
12 noon-2 p.m. - parlour at Wilmot

Tuesday, Dec. 19: "Praying the News This Advent" - small group retreat
7 p.m. parlour at Wilmot

Thursday, Dec. 21: "The Longest Night" celebration - 7 p.m. in the Wilmot Sanctuary

Hope to see you Sunday,

Blessings,

Rose~Hannah