

WEEKLY E-LETTER --

Oct. 09, 2017

Grace and Peace to you all on Thanksgiving Day! I hope you have had a good weekend and have begun to see the colours changing.

This week I shall attend the Worship Committee meeting, the Stewardship and Finance Committee meeting and the gathering of the Property Development working group. A great deal of work is being done, by many people in our church all week, every week.

It was a joy to formally welcome eight new disciples as members of Wilmot congregation on Sunday. I hope you will come by the parlour next Sunday, October 15th and say welcome to all the new people who have become part of our community of faith over the past year.

There is another invitation I want to give you. On Friday 27th October, Catherine Smith is coming to Wilmot to lead us in an evening event to equip us for the year ahead. We are invited to gather around the themes of Expectation and Possibility. Catherine tells me:

"This will be a gentle evening, and not a long one, gathered around a shared meal, such an ancient and vital way of nurturing community. There will be words about what Expectation and Possibility might mean in Wilmot's particular context, a practice to support the congregations leaders, who we are calling 'elders', on their journey of tending the touchstones for this time. "

Our gathering will help strengthen our reciprocal care for one another as Wilmot listens for wisdom concerning the decisions we will make about our future and our property. The evening will end with a brief Taize style worship in the sanctuary. All ages are welcome and no one will feel on the spot. It will be good to be together.

Blessing to you this week, I look forward to seeing you soon.
