

WEEKLY E-LETTER --

Jan. 3, 2018

Grace and Peace to you in 2018!

I hope you had a holiday that was just what you needed and that you are not too stressed by this long spell of frigid weather. Pipes burst in the church yesterday, which is not surprising given the old building and the sustained very cold temperatures. Good for Randy, he noticed immediately, and Trustee Greg Black came to help solve the matter.

The service on Sunday marks Epiphany, which is January 6th and The Baptism of the Lord, which is the 7th January. Here are the readings for Sunday: Isaiah 60: 1-6, Ephesians 3: 1-12 and Matthew 2: 1-12. We will be celebrating the sacrament of baptism this Sunday and again on February 4th.

Do you know that from time to time, adults choose to reaffirm their baptismal vows? The reasons are as varied as the individual, and it is a deeply moving moment for everyone. If you would like to talk about this, please call.

There are a number of meetings beginning the following week and we shall hope for good weather on Sunday. I look forward to re-connecting with you on Sunday.

i hope you had the opportunity to see the Wolf Moon on the night between 1 and 2 January 2018. It was a Supermoon.

Take care of yourself, and love your neighbour.

In the Peace and Light of Epiphany

Rose~Hannah
